In the selection of the Children to be retained we were careful to show a preference for those who had been the greatest students and anxiously to the late Miss Rose.

As a temporary measure and communications from the Friends of M. M. in England it has been arranged to place thousands of the Committee and Trustees of the Native Female Training School. Girls be received into the unoccupied their Building under the care of M. M. we manage to hold the Institution all expenses attendant upon the arrangement. The Boys retained have in a similar manner, upon the same conditions, been transferred to Paul's College under the care of Misses and have been sent back to England.

The School Master and his Wife, who arrived, were sent back to England by the Steamer of the 29th July.

These measures enable us to surrender School House this day and thus to be relieved of about $213 per month in School House, House Rents and Taxes, by the other expenses incidental to a large ment.

In regard to the funds for carrying out the arrangements, we regret to say that the utmost economy has been exercised, and that expending all the available money of $1165.16.
